

*For I am now ready to be offered,
and the time of my departure is at hand.
I have fought a good fight,
I have finished my course,
I have kept the faith:
Henceforth there is laid up for me
a crown of righteousness,
which the Lord, the righteous judge,
shall give me at that day:
and not to me only,
but unto all them also that love his appearing.*

My Mother's Presence

*My mother's presence always warmed our home
With peace and security and love.*

She was like a gentle breeze that wafted through Setting things right, creating a haven for us all.

Whatever problems we had, Mom solved them.

Whatever triumphs we had, Mom celebrated them.

Whatever needs we had, Mom fulfilled them.

Surely such a mother could never drift far

From those she loved with all her heart.

Though she has left her earthly body behind,

I feel her presence still.

Mom remains close to me, she knows my sorrow,

And she enfolds me in invisible arms I can still feel,

And she comforts me.

Pamela Annette Winslow, 62, of Little Rock passed from this life on September 17, 2020. She was born July 6, 1958 in Little Rock, Arkansas to Arthur Felton Turley and Cleoma Wells Brown. Pamela was of the Baptist faith. She enjoyed clogging and needlepoint, but found her greatest joy in her family, especially her grandchildren. Pamela loved to travel and despite her myriad of illnesses over the years, she was quite the daredevil. She was the first in line for the scariest of rides at amusement parks and went sky diving on a whim. Pamela was preceded in death by her father, Arthur Felton Turley, sister, Dianne Turley and stepfather, Lt. Colonel Robert E. Brown.

Survivors include her husband of forty-five years, Mark Winslow; mother, Cleoma Brown; children, Melanie (Chris) Lyons and Mark "Tony" Winslow II; grandchildren, Abigail, Greyson, and Cameron Hoover. Other survivors include sisters, Linda Pounders, Deborah Turley, Ashely (Kevin) Teague; stepmother, Sharon Turley, and stepsister, Leeann Brown-Siggers along with a host of extended family and friends.
