Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little-but not too long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that we once shared
Miss me-but let me go
For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.

It's all part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home
When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss me but let me go.

Margaret Lynne Hutto passed away Wednesday, November 18, 2020 at Baptist Hospital Little Rock. She was 72.

She was born June 22, 1948 to parents T.A. "Al" and Mary (Wiseman) Vandegrift in Little Rock. She graduated from North Little Rock High School in 1966.

She married Jerry Wayne Hutto Sr on January 21, 1967. Before they drifted apart, Lynne and Jerry were married for 14 years. Over time, they found their way back to each other and were reunited in wedded bliss again on October 18, 2000. They were then married for another 17 years before Jerry passed away in 2018.

Lynne worked for Southwestern Bell Telephone in her early years, before deciding to attend nursing school in 1976. Once she received her LPN, she worked at UAMS and other health care facilities before retiring from Methodist Behavioral Hospital in Maumelle.

Lynne loved to go bowling and was in several bowling leagues in the mid 1980s. She was also an avid reader. Above all, she loved a good nap and keeping in touch with her loved ones.

She is survived by her son and daughter-in-law, Jerry & Cat Hutto of Sherwood; her daughter and son-in-law Jennifer & Jeff Holt of Springhill, Tennessee; her two grandchildren Clay Holt and Stacey Holt also of Springhill, Tennessee; her sisters Betty Webb (John) of Benton and Joyce Smith of Little Rock.

She is preceded in death by her parents and brother Richard "Dickey" Vandegrift and sister Carol Ann Holland.
