1 Thessalonians 4:14-17

For since we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so, through Jesus, God will bring with him those who have fallen asleep.

For this we declare to you by a word from the Lord, that we who are alive, who are left until the coming of the Lord, will not precede those who have fallen asleep.

For the Lord himself will descend from heaven with a cry of command, with the voice of an archangel, and with the sound of the trumpet of God. And the dead in Christ will rise first. Then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air, and so we will always be with the Lord.

Steven Everett Rowland, 49, of North Little Rock, passed away unexpectedly on December 1, 2020 at his home.

He was born on August 18, 1971 to Everett DeLon and Barbara (Bailey) Rowland in Little Rock.

He is preceded in death by his father, and his brother, Randall DeLon Rowland. He is survived by his loving mother; two nieces, Ashley Rowland of Mt. Home, Idaho and Taylor Tull (Michelle) of Bryant; step-sister, Christa Rowland of Manhattan, New York; aunt, Debbie Lawrenz, of Bauxite; and many cousins who loved him dearly.

Steve was a sweet, kind-hearted soul, who was always willing to lend a helping hand to those who needed it. He was an animal lover and will be missed by his four rescue dogs: Amigo, Sunny, Sammie and Summer.
