

AMAZING GRACE

*Amazing grace
How sweet the sound
That saved a wretch like me
I once was lost But now I'm found
Was blind, but now I see*

*'Twas grace that taught
My heart to fear
And grace my Fears relieved
How precious did That grace appear
The hour I first believed*

*Through many dangers Toils and snares We have already come
'Twas grace hath brought Us safe thus far
And grace will lead us home*

*When we've been there
Ten thousand years
Bright shining as the sun
We'll have no less days to sing God's praise
Than when we first begun*

In Loving Memory of

Edith Lorene Owens

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul:
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness
for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me;
Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

Edith Lorene Owens, 90, of Plainview and formerly of North Little Rock, passed away December 11, 2020.

She was born March 11, 1930 in Steve, AR to the late Hollis D. Cox and Jessie "Coxie" Sims Cox. She was also preceded in death by a brother and sister-in-law, Earl and Odessa Cox.

At the age of 16, Edith married the late William E. Owens and to this union was born one son, William "Bill" Owens, Jr. Edith worked for BEI Electronics and retired as assistant personnel manager. Upon retiring she and William returned to her childhood home in Yell County, where she enjoyed gardening, crocheting and passed time making over 110 quilts. She "collected" old farm equipment and established her own museum-of-sorts in the barn of the old home place.

Survivors include her only son and daughter-in-law, Bill and Lyn Owens of North Little Rock; nieces Kay and Cassandra Cox; great -nieces Callie Brucks, Kate Yates, and their children: Maddie, Aiden, Addie, Olivia, Jacob and Spencer; a dear cousin, Nan Howard; and many extended family and friends.

Edith will be laid to rest in a private family service at Nooner Cemetery. A celebration of her life will be announced in the near future for all who knew and loved her.
