Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little-but not too long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that we once shared
Miss me-but let me go
For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.

It's all part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home
When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss me but let me go.

Nicholas "Bebe" Woodrome, 72, of North Little Rock passed away October 12, 2021. He was born in Lookeba, Oklahoma on January 23, 1949 to the late Bert Woodrone and Christie Estaline Foust Woodrome. He grew up in Wichita, Kansas and moved to Little Rock in 1977. He worked at Falcon Jet until his retirement. Bebe enjoyed visits to the VFW where he was a friend to many people.

He was preceded in death by siblings: Vera Woodrome, Deward Woodrome, Boyd Woodrome, Christopher Woodrome, Charles Wade Woodrome, Verla Smith, Janell Jung and Twila Woodrome; and his wife, Mary Woodrome. Survivors include siblings: Treva (Ernest) Adams, Janie Graham and Jerry Woodrome; brother-in-law, Lawrence Jung; sisters-in-law, Opal Woodrome and Lorene Woodrome; step-son Tracy (Mary) Marteny; and several nieces and nephews.

Visitation will begin at 2:00 PM, followed by a 3:00 PM Life Celebration Service on Saturday, October 16, 2021 at Smith North Little Rock Funeral Home.
