Afterglow

*I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways,
of happy times and laughing times
and bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve to dry before the sun of happy memories that I leave when life is done...*

Obituary

MR. HENRY JEFFERSON was called home to be with the Lord on October 9, 2021. Henry was born on April 1, 1936, to the parentage of Willie Gene and Daisy Jefferson of Arlington, GA.

Unfortunately, Henry lost his parents at an early age. Henry's grandparents took custody and raised him in a neighboring town call Blakely, GA. Henry ultimately moved to Eatonton, GA, where other family members had settled. He received his education in the Putnam School System. He became a strong and faithful member of St. John AME Church. He had good religious conviction, earning the nickname of "Rev." Henry was always lending a helpful hand to the community and friends by transporting neighboring children to and from school. Henry united in holy matrimony with Hazel Johnson on October 22, 1961. To this union, three children were born: Marcia Harris of Lithonia, GA, Marcus Jefferson (Synthia) of Albany, GA, and Andrea Jefferson of Eatonton, GA. He worked in New Jersey in the summer months then traveled to Florida in the winter months as a cook. He also worked at Lippert Components in Eatonton, and he retired from the City of Eatonton as a meter reader for the water company. Henry had a love for riding in his clean Ford 150, wearing his cowboy hat with his big belt buckle. Henry enjoy baseball and the Atlanta Braves. He was a spiffy dresser, loved children and playing with his grandkids, gardening, and music; the blues was his absolute favorite.

Henry Jefferson was preceded in death by: two sisters, Agnes Juanita Olds and Katie Gilbert; one brother, Willie Jim Jefferson, Jr.; one aunt, Agnes Jekins; and others.

To cherish him in loving memory, Henry leaves: his wife, Hazel Jefferson; three children, Marcia Harris of Lithonia, GA, Marcus Jefferson (Synthia) of Albany, GA, and Andrea Jefferson of Eatonton, GA; four nieces, Melissa Gilbert, Bonnie Collins and Betty Malone of Albany, GA, and Tia Olds Leach of New York, NY; one nephew, Reginald Olds of Lawrenceville, GA; five grandchildren; great-grandchildren; and other relatives and friends.

If I Should Go Tomorrow

*If I should go tomorrow,
It would never be goodbye,
For I have left my heart with you
So don't you ever cry.
The love that's deep within me,
Shall reach you from the stars,
You'll feel it from the heavens,
And it will heal the scars.*
