OBITUARY

Mr. Erskine E. Standifer was born on November 23, 1946, to Willie Jay and Reva Standifer of Monticello, GA. He was preceded in death by his father, Willie Jay Standifer, and his brother, Aaron Standifer.

Erskine Standifer, 74, passed from this life to eternity on Thursday, April 8, 2021.

Erskine graduated from Jasper County Training School in 1964, and upon graduation, he attended Morehouse College. Erskine went on to work for Dade Paper Company in Atlanta, GA, for 54 years.

Mr. Erskine Standifer, affectionately known as Daddy, Papa, Papa Erskine, and Granddaddy, was very quiet and humble but passionate about taking care of his family. He had such admiration for his wife, Mattie Standifer, and all his children and grandchildren. In his leisure time, he loved to travel and watch western movies.

Erskine Standifer leaves to cherish his precious memories, his loving and devoted wife of 22 years, Mattie Standifer. Erskine and Mattie had a blended family of six children and four adopted children: Stephanie Brock of Orlando, FL, Eric (Crystal) Standifer of Hill Air Force Base, Utah, Shynetra Brown of Atlanta, GA, Corinthia (Joshua) Farley of Conyers, GA, Rhonwyn Smith of Athens, GA, Nicole (Cliff) Lynch of Covington, GA, Anthony Jones of Eatonton, GA, Antwan Jones of Covington, GA, Antioneus Lewis of Eatonton, GA, and Anqunette Hughes of Monticello, GA; his mother, Reva Standifer of Monticello, GA; his siblings, Norman (Joann) Standifer of Charlotte, NC, Nathaniel Standifer of Aurora, CO, Whichard Standifer of Monticello, GA, and Joel (Quency) Standifer of Decatur, GA; two uncles, Leroy Brinkley of Norfolk, VA, Norman Brinkley, Jr., of Edenton, NC; fifteen grandchildren and ten great-grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, extended family, and friends.

Kissing the Bride

*Here we stand hand in hand
a beautiful song from the band
my heart i hear it beat i cannot feel my own feet
when i hear the pastor speak i feel my knees getting weak in you'r eyes i see my future
as the guests take our pictures Here's the ring my love
i shall wear it like a glove before you start to cry
i hear the words, 'you may kiss the bride'*

Afterglow

*I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
And bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave when life is done.*
