Precious Memories

Our Loving Queen

Life Reflections

Who can find a virtuous woman? For her price is far above rubies. The heart of her husband doth safely trust her, so that he shall have no need of spoil. She will do him good and not evil all the days of her life.

On Monday July 6, 2020 at 4:29 pm. The Lord picked a beautiful rose to lay in his eternal heavenly garden. Your throne was ready, but our hearts were not. Your sweet gentle touch will be missed by us all. Mama rest assured cause you raised us to stand tall. We'll never forget all the values you instilled within, for we didn't just lose a mother, we loss our best friend. You know how much we loved you, but God loves you best. You put up the strongest fight, now sweet lady take your rest. We love you forever Mommy. From your children.

Mrs. Annie Boykin Toney was born December 9, 1952 in Sumter S.C. to the late Lamb and Annie Rivers Boykin. She received her education at Lincoln High in Sumter, S.C.

She was employed as a laborer at Georgia Pacific and had a career as a cook at Sumter School District and Morris College. In her pastime she was known for her famous cinnamon rolls, cooking, feeding everyone and spending time with her family. She was also known as Mrs. Frizzle "The Neighborhood Grandma."

She was proceeded in death by her late husband Spencer Toney Sr. and granddaughter Jamie Harvin.

She leaves to cherish her memories; two sons, Sammie Rhodes (Marketta Wright) of Columbia S.C. and Spencer Toney of Sumter S.C.; six daughters: Donna Williams of Fort Mill S.C., Lisa Rhodes of Sumter S.C., Allison Harvin (James) of Sumter S.C., Roslin Nickens (Rondell) of Sumter S.C., Tronni Rhodes of Sumter S.C. and Monica McCoy (Chauncey) of Sumter S.C., two brothers; Johnny Boykin (Debra) of Sumter SC, and Henry Hair of Philadelphia, PA, twenty-five grandchildren, thirty-two great-grands and a host of nieces and nephews.

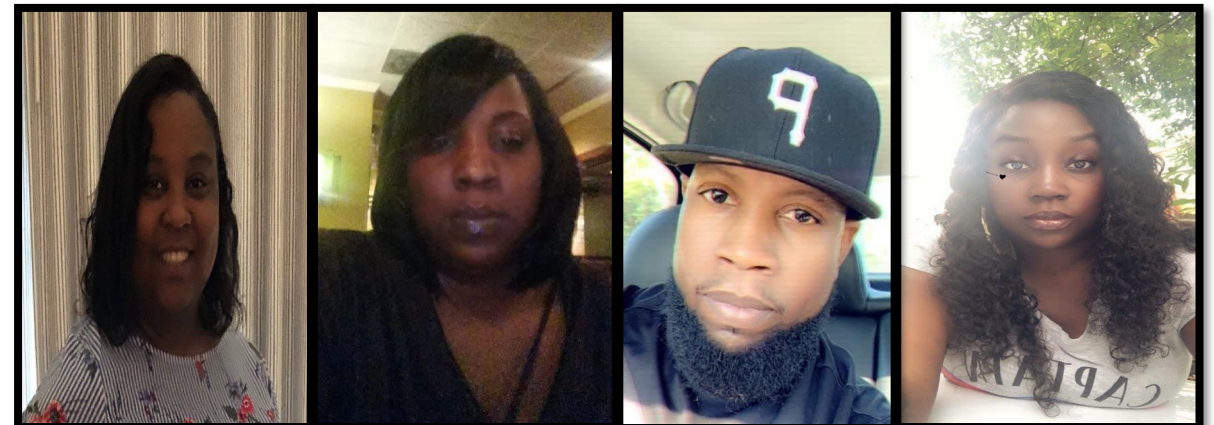

Mommy You Are Our Precious Jewel and You Will Truly Be Missed.

Dear Lord, were relying on your promises to us, I turn to you in trust that she is enjoying your loving embrace. You alone know how she loved the best she could and how she faithfully endured the struggles that she faced. You know the graces you gave her, and you know the grace she was to us and to many others. For all the ways she truly loved the way you loved her, please reward her, Lord. May she enjoy the communion of all her family and friends who are with you. Lord, I know my mom still loves us who are still here on earth. I ask that you might listen to her fervent prayers for us. Help us to grow into a new and deeper relationship with our mom now, as we long for the day when we all meet your embrace freed from all that might have hindered our relationship on earth, knowing and understanding everything we did not know or understand on this earth. Amen
