Obituary

Marvin Nealy Wells was born on July 2, 1944, in Atlanta, GA to the late Robert N. Wells, Jr. and Ethel Bell Wells. The third of ten children, Marvin (affectionately known as "Sonny") was educated in Atlanta Public Schools.

Marvin began his employment career as a driver for the Ivan Allen Company. He was subsequently employed in the Medical Supply field for Crawford Long and South Fulton hospitals. After retirement, Marvin enjoyed driving for a limousine service, as well as with Uber driving service.

Marvin was united in holy matrimony to "his best Duchess" Charlotte Anderson in 1983. He loved the Lord and was a devoted member of Covenant Christian Ministries in Marietta, GA.

Driving, cooking and baking delicious pound cakes were some of Marvin's favorite pastimes. Moreover, he was known for his impeccable appearance and loved when someone commented on his attire or said he was "sharp." This earned him an additional nickname of "Marvelous Marvin." Other nicknames were "The Duke" and "Captain." Marvin loved his family – both biological and extended family. He always remembered birthdays and special occasions. He had a special nickname for almost everyone. Marvin embraced social media and loved to comment to his siblings, nieces, nephews and others on Facebook.

Marvin was predeceased by his parents, his dear son Antonio Donta Harper, and his beloved granddaughter, Marlissa Wells.

Marvin leaves to cherish his memory, a loving and devoted wife and friend, Charlotte Wells, daughter Erica Wells-Young (Gary), son Corey Anderson (Lynedra), eight siblings, Mrs. Bobbie Hughes, Mrs. Dorothy Smith (Shelby), Mrs. Carole Isom (Robert), Mrs. Elaine Benson, Mrs. Sarah Reid (Elijah), Mr. Robert Wells, Mr. Ralph Wells, Mrs. Patricia Moore (Thomas), three grandchildren, Keonna Crawford, Eric Wells-Shivers, Wisdom Anderson, three great grandchildren, brothers and sisters-in-law, nieces, nephews, his many friends, and his church family.

Even through his trials, Marvin's trust in God was always at the forefront. One of his favorite sayings was "Praise God."
