

I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day; and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.
II Timothy 4:7-8

Life Reflections

Dolores Marie Campbell

Dolores Marie Campbell was born on November 20, 1943 in Tampa, Florida. She was the daughter of Jesse and Ethel Warren. When she was a young child the family moved to Memphis, Tennessee. Dolores attended Geeter Elementary and High School in Memphis. Immediately after graduation, Dolores moved to Los Angeles, California to attend college.

While in Los Angeles, she met and married Freddie Moreland on September 14, 1963. To this union, her daughter Tracey was born. Dolores transferred to Lemoyne Owen College, an HBCU in Memphis, Tennessee where she graduated with a bachelor's degree in education. After graduation, she moved to Lansing, Michigan for her first teaching job. She met and married Marvin Campbell and they moved to Chicago, Illinois.

After moving her family to Maywood, Illinois, Dolores welcomed her son Tyrell into her life. Dolores continued her teaching career in District 89 at Garfield and Lexington Elementary Schools. While teaching others, she desired to further her own education. She received her Master's Degree from National Louis University in Chicago, Illinois. Dolores was a proud member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority graduate chapter of Glen Ellyn, Illinois.

No matter where she lived, church was an important part of her life. Dolores attended Second Baptist Church in Maywood, and First Baptist Church in Melrose Park, Illinois. When she moved to Bolingbrook, Illinois she attended Alpha Baptist Church.

Dolores was a free spirit and she enjoyed going on adventures and road trips. She often stopped at diners and restaurants along the way because she was always in the mood for milkshakes. She loved to sing and dance, especially as she was getting dressed. Dolores also had a love for dogs and she was never without one. Dogs had a way of getting whatever they wanted from her.

Dolores loved teaching and enjoyed working with and developing students. She enjoyed bringing her granddaughter, Daja, to school to decorate her classrooms. She would even allow her to help grade papers. Dolores liked the curiosity of kids and the conversations she had with them. She always used to say "kids say the darndest things, I'll tell ya." Dolores retired after over 30 years of teaching.

Her favorite job of all was being a mother and grandmother. She loved them all unconditionally.

On Tuesday, May 31, 2022 God sent an angel to pluck one of the most precious lilies from his valley.

Dolores leaves to cherish her memories: her daughter, Tracey Moreland; son, Tyrell Campbell; granddaughter, Daja Brown and other relatives and friends. Dolores was proceeded in death by her parents and brother, Raleigh Warren.

Tributes

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

When tomorrow starts without me and I'm not here to see If the sun should rise and find your eyes all filled with tears for me

I wish you wouldn't cry the way you did today while thinking of the many things we did not get to say

I know how much you love me as much as I love you each time that you think of me I know you will miss me too

When tomorrow starts without me please try to understand that an angel came and called my name and took me by the hand

The angel said my place was ready in heaven far above and that I would have to leave behind all those I dearly love but when I walked through Heaven's Gates I felt so much at home when GOD looked down and smiled at me from his golden throne

He said this is eternity and all I promised you today for life on earth is done but here it starts a new

I promise no tomorrow for today will always last and since each day's the exact same way there is no longing for the past

*So when tomorrow starts without me do not think we're apart
For every time you think of me remember I'm right here in your heart*

Mom

I miss you already. Just to know you were in the land of the living was enough for me not to feel so alone. You were such a fierce woman and example of strength, which allowed me to take on the hurdles that occurred in my life. You persevered even when life was not very kind to you. I am so proud of your accomplishments. You showed unconditional love to me, my brother and your granddaughter, and we will carry you in our hearts daily, making the absence of your physical presence bearable. We will miss you forever.

We love you,

Tracey, Tyrell, and Daja
