

I'M FREE

Don't grieve for me
 for now I'm free,
 I'm following the path
 God laid for me
 I took his hand
 when I heard him call,
 I turned my back and left it all
 I could not stay another day,
 To laugh, to love,
 to work or play
 Tasks left undone
 must stay that way, I've found that peace
 at the close of day
 If my parting has left a void,
 Then fill it with remembered joy
 A friendship shared,
 a laugh, a kiss,
 Ah yes, these things
 I too will miss Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
 I wish for you the sunshine of tomorrow
 My life's been full,
 I've savored much,
 Good friends, good times,
 my loved one's touch
 If my time seemed all too brief, Don't lengthen it now
 with undue grief
 Lift up your heart,
 rejoice with me,
 God wanted me now,
 He set me free.

HORACE LEVORAN HARRIS

The hour came a chill passed by God and took our loved one to the sky.

Horace Levoran Harris was born June 3, 1949, in Cotton Plant, AR to Walter Harris and Careline Lock Harris.

Horace joined Rock Chapel AME church at an early age where he remained a faithful member until he left Arkansas.

Horace began his education at the Cotton Plant elementary school and continued on to the Cotton Plant Vocational High School where he graduated in 1967. He was a stand-out baseball player where he was known for pitching no-hitters.

After graduating high school, Horace relocated to Chicago, IL in 1967. He would go on to be employed by the City of Chicago where he worked in the Water Dept.

Horace had a love for fishing and was a great fisherman where he passed his passion on to his sons and nephews.

Horace met his wife Cathy Braggs in 1982 and they were married in 1994.

He is preceded in death by his mother and father Walter and Careline Harris, three brothers: Buford, J.C. and Dwight, and one sister Betty Lee Whaley.

He is survived by his wife Cathy Harris, children: Cheryl Harris-Stovall, Cleotis Stovall (Lisa), Levoran Harris (Chiana), Nicole Orozco, and Marquise Brown, stepdaughters: Nikita and Karen. He also leaves behind four sisters: Deloise Steele, Bernice Evans, Prezel Bennett, and Stephanie Harris, one brother John Lee Harris, sister and brother in-law Cassandra and Joe Ellebb, and a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
