

Forever Free

As we say farewell, please feel no sorrow, For time on this Earth, we only borrow. Lucky was I, my heart had a home. And with you by my side, I felt not alone. You filled my life with happiness and light, my soul Shall remain eternally bright. Love cannot end, it cannot disappear.

I will always Be with you, I will always be near. And now that my journey has come to an end, Please know and take comfort in this my friend. For me, for my life, please do not grieve for now. I will remain

“Forever free”.

JACKIE

A. Wright Jr.

Life Reflections

Jackie A. Wright Jr. was born the second child to Diane Kathy Douglas and Jackie Wright on September 19, 1967 at Cook County Hospital.

Jackie born into the Nation of Islam and attended Claire Mohammad Elementary School. After graduating Dunbar Vocational High School, Jackie worked numerous jobs, including real estate and construction. Eventually Jackie began employment for his Uncle David in the family business, where he served as an expediter for commercial trucking. Jackie was highly thought of in the position and was always one to count on when the family needed something to get done.

Jackie Andrew Wright Jr. was a fun-loving man and father. He was often times just silly. He had a humor that would make you smile even on the darkest of days. He was able to hold a smile no matter the situation. His personality touched so many people. He was a family man who was crazy about his daughters Nikesha and Jacquelyn whom he called Woo Woo and Boo Woo. One of a kind and a jack of all trades. He really was someone special.

Jackie will be remembered for his sense of humor, which could make you smile on even the darkest of days. Jackie was a true family man and always ready to lend a hand at the slightest notice. Jackie was preceded in death by his mother, Diana Kathy Wright; his father Jackie Wright; and his brothers: Allen and Yusuf.

Jackie leaves to cherish his loving brothers: Charles Wright, Samuel Wright and Albert Wright; 2 daughters: Nikesha and Jacquelyn; and grandchildren: James, Keshawn, Jesse and Nekai.

Tributes

The LORD Is My Shepherd

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. He makes me lie down in green pastures. He leads me beside still waters. He restores my soul. He leads me in paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for you are with me; your rod and your staff, they comfort me. You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies; you anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I shall dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

If Tears Could Build A Stairway

*If tears could build a stairway
And memories were a lane
I would walk right up to heaven
And bring you back again*

*No farewell words were spoken
No time to say goodbye
You were gone before I knew it
And only God knows why*

*My heart still aches with sadness
And secret tears still flow
What it meant to lose you
No one will ever know*

*But now I know you want me
To mourn for you no more
To remember all the happy times
Life still has much in store*

*Since you'll never be forgotten
I pledge to you today
A hallowed place within my heart
Is where you'll always stay*

Big Dog sends all his love and condolences
