

The Life and Legacy of

Renda Kaye Moore Northington

On September 13, 1958 God breathed his breath of life into a beautiful baby girl born to Dorothy J. Rector and John Northington. Her father and one sister, Linda Moore-Harris, preceded her in death.

Renda was the most active lady as anyone could possibly imagine. One of her favorite projects was making macramé items, and she was an awesome jewelry maker. She loved going to the movies and collecting them. She was also a lover of music and she loved to read. If there was a table games invented – she could and would play it. Now there was one hobby that was just hard to imagine – she “Collected TV Guides”. No really – she did, hundreds of them 😊.

She was a 1976 Graduate of Capitol Hill High School. She worked for the Department of Human Services from July 8, 1988 until December 17, 2010.

She was a life member Bethlehem Star Baptist Church and remained there her entire life. In 2016 she Graduated from Bethlehem Star School of Evangelism. She loved the Lord and was an avid reader of the Bible.

She met and fell in love Mickey (Cocker Spaniel) & Chaucie her beloved puppies and 3 beautiful cockatiel birds. Much Love there!!!!!!

She leaves behind to cherish her loving memory, her mother – Dorothy Rector.

Siblings: Cinda Thomas, David Moore, Carolyn Rector, Johnny Rector, Jr., Bryan Rector (Diimah), Brother: Richard & Johnny Northington. Sister: Jackie Northington, Jacqueline Gabriel, Kaphleen House and a very Special Aunt Essie B. Walter. Uncles; Johnell Jackson & Iroy (Isaac) Jackson (Linda) and a special cousin Sarah Steele. She loved spending time with her nieces and nephews: Shaquita L. Thomas (Robert), Tra’Vonta, Ar’Kina, Shinya & BryJona Rector. There are a host of great nieces and nephews and many wonderful friends.

“I have fought a good fight. I have finished the race, and I Have remained faithful.” 2 Timothy 4:7

When I Am Gone
Those Who Love Me
When I am gone, release me and let me go.
I have so many things to see and do.
You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears
I gave you my love. You can only guess
How much you gave to me in happiness.
Thank you for the love you each have shown
But now it's time I traveled on alone
So grieve a while for me if grieve you must
Then let your grief be comforted by trust
It's only for a while that we must part
So bless the memories within your heart
I won't be far away, for life goes on
So if you need me, call and I will come
Though you can't see or touch me. I'll be near
And if you listen with your heart, you'll hear
All of my love around you soft and clear
And then when you must come this way alone
I'll greet you with a smile and say
"Welcome Home"
