

I Am Free

*Don't grieve for me for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call:
I turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way;
I found my place at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joys.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too shall miss.*

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow:
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savoured much;
Good friends, good times, a loved ones touch.*

*Perhaps my life seemed all too brief:
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me;
God wanted me now, He set me free.*

Expressions of Gratitude

We, the family of Daisy L. Baines., would like to express our sincere gratitude to those of you who so kindly celebrated her life along with us. Your kindness and support will always remain in our hearts.

In loving memory of Daisy, thank you all.

The Obituary

Daisy L. Baines was born on June 1, 1947 in Dillon, South Carolina to the late David and Lusellar Jones. She departed this earthly journey on Monday, July 13, 2020.

Daisy began her education in Dillon County Public Schools. She completed her education in Syracuse, New York.

At an early age, Daisy was baptized at the family church in Lake View, South Carolina. While in Syracuse, New York, she was a faithful member of the St. Luke Missionary Baptist Church.

Daisy was employed with Cambridge Filters in Syracuse, New York as a blueprint technician. She later worked as a Certified Nursing Assistant from which she retired.

Daisy was a dedicated mother and friend to everyone she met. To know Daisy was to love her.

Daisy was preceded in death by her parents, David and Lusellar Jones; six brothers, James, David Earl, Arthur Mack, Charles, Marvin; and one sister, Ophelia.

Daisy leaves to cherish her memories her only child, daughter Yolanda Roberts; Yolanda's father, Jay Roberts, who they remained the best of friends throughout her life; a brother, Lawrence Jones of Tampa, FL; the remaining Roberts family; and a host of loving family and friends.
