

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
 I'm following the path God has laid you see.
 I took His hand when I heard him call
 I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day
 To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
 Tasks left undone must stay that way
 I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void
 Then fill it with remembered joy.
 A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
 Oh yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow
 I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
 My life's been full, I savored much
 Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief
 Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
 Lift up your hearts and peace to thee
 God wanted me now; He set me free.

Expressions of Gratitude

We, the family of Jerome A. Brown, would like to express our sincere gratitude to those of you who so kindly celebrated his life along with us. Your many acts of kindness, encouraging words, and most of all your prayers have sustained us during this difficult time. May God forever bless you.

In loving memory of Jerome, thank you all.

The Obituary

Mr. Jerome A. "Chic" Brown was born in Columbia, South Carolina on June 28, 1953 to the late James and Alberta Brown. He departed this earthly journey on Thursday, August 13, 2020.

Jerome was educated in the public schools of Richland County School District Two. He was a graduate of Spring Valley High School. He later furthered his education at Midland Technical College.

Jerome was employed by T.D. Banks as a Quality Assurance Associate in Lexington, South Carolina. He was a dedicated employee and worked for over forty years in the mortgage industry.

Jerome was a loving husband and father, who would give his last to help anyone he could. He truly enjoyed spending time with his family and friends. To know him was to love him.

Jerome was preceded in death by his parents, James and Alberta Brown; two sisters, Maxine Brown, and Linda French.

Jerome leaves to cherish his precious memory to his wife, Lavenia Brown; son, Royce (Melissa) Brown; step-children, LaQuenia Thompson, and Dennis Martin; brother, James Earl (Phyllis) Brown; sisters, Claudia Ann Edwards, Sonja Dantzler, Maureen (Willie) Wages, and Wendy Wilson; eight grandchildren; and a host of other loving relatives and friends.
