RACHEAL M. SINCLAIR

SUNRISE 1.16.1971 – SUNSET 4.12.2021

THE STORY OF RACHEAL

Pastor Racheal Michelle Glover Sinclair, the daughter of late Eddie Glover, Sr; and Julia Mae Glover, was born on January 16, 1971, in Sumter County, SC. She departed this life on Monday, April 12, 2021, at her home in Columbia, SC. During her second battle with cancer, she never lost faith or hope. Faith and hope is how she lived her life. Her positive spirit would light up a room along with her dazzling and reassuring smile. Her sense of humor was enlightening, and her singing voice was one in a million.

At an early age, she accepted Jesus Christ as her personal Savior and accepted the calling on her life to preach at the young age of 21. She was ordained as a minister at Reid Chapel A.M.E Church in Sumter, SC, under Pastor Eliza E. Black's leadership. In January of 2015, she and her husband, Rev. Michael T. Sinclair founded House of God Ministries. Rachael embodied the teachings of Christ in the things she did and with each relationship she cherished. She blessed her community with food drives, giveaways, personal counseling, and the gift of unconditional love.

Her home was filled with abundant home-cooked meals, family fun, and delicious desserts. Her table was also abundant with kindness and understanding for visitors who needed to fill up their souls with thoughtful advice and support.

Rachael was the ultimate organizer and understood how important it was for the family to bond over celebrations and vacations.

Whether it was a cruise, a beach getaway, or a trip to Hawaii, she created family opportunities to connect and make memories. Nothing gave her more joy than seeing others happy.

WE LOVE YOU

Mommy, you will forever be missed. I will never forget the many moments and secrets we have shared. It's going to be tough without you, but I will always carry you in my spirit. Your legacy will forever live on.

*Love, Your Babygirl
Tiesha Porter*

I'm going to miss you. I'm going to miss your smile, which can light up any room. I'm going to miss your singing. You are now the new choir director of the "Make a Joyful Noise" choir in heaven. I'm going to miss your preaching, and listening to you reminds us how we are to love the Lord and love our neighbors.

I'm going to miss how you "aren't talking about anyone; you're just talking about what you are talking about." I'm going to miss your cooking and baking. You are "THEE" best cook I know. You bake so well that you have both the Pillsbury Dough Boy and Aunt Jemima licking their lips. I'm going to miss watching "Lifetime Movies" with you. I'm going to miss watching you play with our German Shephard Luke and complaining about his shedding at the same time.

Racheal, God has allowed me to spend nearly fourteen years being married to you. Wow, what fourteen years. I miss you already.

Love, Honey
