THE OBITUARY

Andre Darrell Lee was born on October 20, 1994, in Watertown, New York to Prentiss Darrell Lee and Juliana Marie Lee. He departed this earthly journey way too early on November 23, 2021.

Andre was employed by Trane in South Carolina for many years and later moved on to work for Walmart Distribution Center in North Carolina. There he was recognized and praised for his punctuality, hard work, genuine personality, laughter he brought everybody, and attention to detail.

Andre dedicated his life to family and loved ones. Family meant everything to Andre. His son Noah was the love of his life who he adored with all his heart and every piece of his existence. Andre enjoyed playing with his son and snuggling with him in the mornings. They enjoyed going on family vacations, listening to music, and playing video games. Andre would always say, "I'm going to live everyday like it's my last day." His fiancé of 9 years and mother of Noah, Danielle James, was his best friend and true love. He'd do anything for both of them. Danielle loved Andre so much, he was everything to her. They were truly inseparable. Andre loved his mother deeply and she was proud of the young man he became. Andre cherished the relationship he had with his father and would enjoy spending time with him. As a young child they would go on fishing trips and attend car shows and sporting events. Andre's brother, Adonus Lee, looked up to Andre just as much as he looked up to Adonus. They were inseparable and loved each other deeply.

Andre was sociable, intelligent, and loved to make people laugh. He was known for his beautiful smile and liked to be on the go finding anything in life to do. He had a caring and giving soul and was a joy to be around. He even made a couple songs that are streamed on several platforms. He was a talented young man.

Andre was preceded in death by his maternal grandfather, David Fredrick Moltz.

Andre leaves to cherish his memory his son, Noah Darrell Lee; parents, Prentiss and Juliana Lee; brothers, Adonus Darrell Lee and Deonte Jamal Lee; maternal grandmother, Donna Belinda (Richard) Bryant; paternal grandparents, Irwin Lee and Christine (Robert) Ganter; fiancé, Danielle Marie James; and a host of loving aunts, uncles, cousins, relatives and friends.
