I'm Free

Don't grieve for me for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard him call.

I turned back and left it all.
I could not stay another day to laugh,
to love, to work or play.

Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found that peace at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void, then fill it with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
ah yes, those things I too, will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow.
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full.
I savored much: good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Lift up your heart and share with me.

God wanted me now.

He set me free!

OBITUARY

Mr. Billie Ray Hickman, son of the late Deacon Vernon and Deaconess Velma Long Hickman was born on September 1, 1944 in Conway, South Carolina. He departed this earthly life on April 13, 2022 at home, surrounded by his loving family.

He attended Whittemore High School, class of 1966. He was affectionately known as “Billy the Kid” and “Kid”. He was a loving and humbly spirit with love and concern for everyone. He loved being a gardener and driving around with his brothers and friends to get fresh vegetables during the summer.

He was reared in a Christian home and accepted Christ as his personal Savior at a young age and became a member of the Mt. Pisgah MB Church, where in his earlier years served as a sexton and usher. In his later years, he recommitted himself to Christ and loved coming to Sunday School and Worship Service.

He was employed with Dupont of Florence before moving to Washington, DC. After relocating back home, he worked with his father's logging company and later worked with Stevens Construction and Fleming Construction.

He was preceded in death by his parents, his twin brother, Bobby Hickman; brother, Lee Hickman and sister, Shirley Hickman Butler.

He leaves to cherish his memories four sisters, Mildred Welch, Mary (Stewart) Strothers, Carolyn Hickman-Williams, and Linda (Dea. Quantrel) Brown; four brothers, Dea. Lonnie (Sarah) Hickman, Vernon (Georgia) Hickman, Hayward (Terri) Hickman, and Dea. Charles (Patricia) Hickman; a host of loving and caring nieces and nephews; cousins, other relatives and friends.
