OBITUARY

WADE PATRICK JENKINS (affectionately known as Pat) was born March 25, 1958 in Loris, South Carolina to parents Innette Johnson Jenkins, who preceded him in death, and Abraham Jenkins, Jr.

Wade was a beloved son, father, grandfather, brother, uncle and friend who quietly slipped into eternal rest on Friday, May 8, 2020 in Kentucky.

He received his education in Dade County and Horry County Public Schools and graduated from Green Sea-Floyds High School in 1976. After graduation he became employed with Grand Strand Water and Sewer. In 1977 he joined the Army National Guard of South Carolina. Wade later pursued his passion of driving long distance trucks and over the years he has driven for several trucking companies. At his time of death, he was employed by Abilene Motor Express for nine+ plus years.

Wade leaves to cherish his memory, his devoted father, Abraham Jenkins, Jr. of the home. His loving Son, Wade Patrick Jenkins, Jr. (Alberta Johnson, mother) of Conway, South Carolina. His world for the past nine years, his grandson, Elijah Patrick Jenkins who he affectionately called "Mo-Mo" of Conway, South Carolina. Two brothers: Charles Edward Jenkins (Joyce Jenkins) of Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, Darryl Jenkins (Alida Jenkins) of Rochester, New Hampshire. One sister; Judy Moore of Myrtle Beach, South Carolina. Nieces, nephews, grand nieces and nephews. One sister and niece preceded him in death. A special friend Janie C. Harrison of Walterboro, South Carolina and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.
