Committal, Benediction and Interment

T Sgt. Wallace Wilson, beloved son of the late Nobic Wilson and Albetha Wilson was born September 2, 1961 in Wampee, South Carolina. He departed this life early Monday morning, May 18, 2020 at home, surrounded by his loving family.

Wallace attended the Horry County Public Schools and was a 1979 graduate of North Myrtle Beach High School. He served in the United States Air Force for 20 years before retiring. He later began teaching at Four Oaks Middle School in Johnston County, North Carolina. In his spare time he loved to fish, read and spend time with his loved ones.

Wallace Wilson leaves to cherish his memories, his phenomenal wife, Gertha Wilson, two children: Wallace Wilson, Jr., and Kenyatta Wilson, two brothers: James Wilson and Jarvis Wilson, Wampee, South Carolina, one bother preceded him in death, Jerry Wilson, three sisters: Sandra Wilson, Denice Lewis and Beverly Hall, all of Wampee, South Carolina, three uncles: John (Jean) Livingston, McArthur Livingston, Wampee, South Carolina and Michael (Patricia) Livingston, Goretown, N.C., two aunts: Mildred Reid, and Shirley ("J.D.") Hemingway of Wampee, South Carolina and a host of wonderful nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

We, as a family, thank you Wallace for your love and wisdom. You will truly be missed.
