I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.

I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.

Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the end of the day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah, yes, these things too I will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

He was a hard worker and held many different jobs throughout the years, picking up extra work and driving a taxi, citing his need to provide for his family as his top priority.

Milton loved history and reading historical biographies, doing word search puzzles, catching up on the latest crime shows, reading the newspaper and listening to Al Green songs. Milton's family will deeply miss his high-pitched laughter, great story telling and his ability to light up every room he entered.
