

September Afternoon

. A Letter from Jai'La Williams, his granddaughter:

It was on the afternoon of September 23rd when I got the call from Mama Jazz about my granddaddy passing away. My heart dropped and everything went quiet really fast. The first thing that came to my mind was my grandma, his beloved wife. When I heard her voice, she sounded joyful, but sad. I already knew it was just for show, she was just trying to stay strong for us. What hurt me the most was knowing my Grandma was hurting deep inside. My dad not knowing what was wrong, as I fell in his arms as the tears flowed down my face, at that time all I felt was pain. But I know everything is going to be alright. My Granddaddy is in a better place now. No more pain and suffering. He left, but, he left us with all the good memories and he will forever live in our hearts. God is, and will always be, on our side.

The LORD is my shepherd, I lack nothing. He makes me lie down in green pastures, he leads me beside quiet waters, he refreshes my soul. He guides me along the right paths for his name's sake. Even though I walk through the darkest valley, I will fear no evil, for you are with me; your rod and your staff, they comfort me. You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies. You anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows. Surely your goodness and love will follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.
