

I Am With You Always

When I am gone release me let me go.
I have so many things to see and do. You mustn't tie yourself to me with too many tears
but be thankful we had so many good years. I gave you my love, and you can only guess how much you've given me and happiness. I thank you for the love you have shown but now it is time I travel on along. So grieve for me a little while, if grieve you must then let your grief be comforted by trust.

Obituary

“There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under the heavens: a time to be born and a time to die, a time to plant and a time to uproot.

Ecclesiastes 3:1-2

Demetris Lee Norris Carter was born on December 16, 1985 at Appling General in Baxley, Georgia to the parentage of Lee Norris Carter and the late Shirley Carter. He departed this life on June 15, 2020 in the comfort of his home.

He joined Saint Paul Church of God in Christ at an early age. He was a very loving and caring person. He attended Appling County Comprehensive High School and briefly attended a military college in Augusta, Georgia.

He was affectionately known as “Meat or Shotgun” to family, friends and everyone that knew him. He was a courageous fighter with the determination to do anything he put his mind to. He loved fishing, spending time with family and friends, playing billiards and cards, adventurous trips, riding motorcycles and ATV’s.

Demetris is preceded in death by his mother, Shirley Fletcher Carter; grandparents, Walter and Mattie Carter, James Otis and Janie Fletcher.

Demetris leaves to cherish his memories with his daughter, Tamiya Crawford; father, Lee Norris Carter (Annie Carter); siblings: Shawntae Fletcher of Hazlehurst, GA, Denorris Carter and Erica Williams (Ricardo), both of Atlanta, GA; step-siblings: Jermain Carter (Shawntae) of Baxley GA, Shawn Bell and Kendra Bell, both of Jesup, GA; special god-brother, Anthony Dent; god-sisters, England Dent and Tangee Carter; grandmother, Annie Mathis. He also leaves to cherish a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.
