

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

When I've come to the end of the road and the sun has set me free,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little, but not too long and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared.
Miss me, but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take
and each must go alone;
It's a part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart
go to the hills we know
and bury your sorrow among the trees.
Miss Me - But Let Me Go!

Acknowledgements

The family sincerely appreciates each expression of love shown to them during this most difficult time. Your prayers, words of comfort, and other gifts of love have been a source of much strength. It is our prayer that the Lord will continue to bless and keep each of you.
