

Our Mother

You can only have one Mother
Patient, kind, and true.
No other friend in the world,
Will be the same to you.
When other friends forsake you,
To Mother you will return.
For all her loving kindness,
She asks nothing in return.
As we look upon her picture,
Sweet memories we recall,
Of a face so full of sunshine,
And a smile for one and all.
Sweet Jesus, take this message,
To our dear mother up above;
Tell her how we miss her,
And give her all our love.

To A Loving Daughter in Heaven

Our time together was special
So were the memories we made
And although you live in Heaven now
Those memories never fade.
I bow my head in silence
And remember my daughter with love
And I know that you are up there
Watching from above.
Every day's a struggle
And nothing feels the same
And my heart breaks a little more
Every time I hear your name.
You'll always be remembered
And time may heal my heart
But a piece of me is missing
Since the day we had to part.
If Heaven is for Angels
Then I know that's where you'll be
And I know you will be waiting
When Heaven calls for me

Precious Memories

What My Aunt Meant to Me

Aunts have no wands or wings,
So, they work with wisdom, love, and things.
Having taken on this role,
You loved me right down to my soul.

Life Reflections of

Anisa Marie Tucker-Kilgore
Alpha- March 1, 1967 – Omega- April 2, 2022

Anisa Marie Tucker-Kilgore, daughter of Mrs. Carolyn B. Robinson Tucker and the late Mr. William Tucker and the mother of William Kilgore, III, Carnissa Kilgore, and Lylah Kilgore, transitioned on April 2, 2022, at WellStar Cobb Hospital, Austell, GA.

In addition to her father, she was preceded in death by her maternal grandparents, Mr. Wilson and Helen T. Robinson; her paternal grandmother, Ms. Mozell Tucker and her sister, Tonya W. Tucker-Smith.

Anisa, as she was affectionately known, began her Christian journey after becoming a member of the Saint Paul Baptist Church, Union, SC where she was a member of many church ministries. After relocating from Washington, DC to Atlanta, GA with her family to pursue projected career opportunities, she then became a member of the Turner Chapel A.M.E Church, Marietta, GA where she found her passion for working with children. With her passion for children, she joined the Nursery and Peewee ministry to help prepare the children for their future.

Anisa was a 1985 graduate of Union Comprehensive High School where she was a member of the Marching Band (The Sting Machine), Gifted & Talented program and was featured in Who’s Who Among American High School Students. Anisa was a 1989 graduate of the South Carolina State University where she earned a B.S. in Marketing. Her career led her to be a valued employee of LendingPoint, LLC as a sales representative.

We, recognize that “Death” is the vehicle from the land of the dying to the land of the living. Although Anisa has transitioned on, she leaves to continue her legacy: her mother, Mrs. Carolyn B. Robinson Tucker of Union, SC; a son, William “BJ” Kilgore, III, and two daughters, Carnissa Kilgore and Lylah Kilgore all of Marietta, GA; two grandchildren, Kade Kilgore and Knoah Kilgore both of Marietta, GA; a nephew, Alex Smith of Union, SC; a niece, DiAudra Smith; two godsons, Mallory Richardson of Covington, LA and Mitchell Blakely of Marietta, GA; a goddaughter, Danielle Blakely of Marietta, GA; two uncles, Stanley Robinson of Union, SC and John (Ernestine) Tucker of Tobyhanna, PA; an aunt, Lizzie Edwards of Brooklyn, NY; a brother-in-law, Alonzo Smith of Union, SC.

Other loving and devoted family and friends include Ohio Jeter, Marie (Lewis) Jeter, Mary Glenn, Brandi Jeter-Brannon, Debra Thompson, Alphonso Blassingame, Frederick Gregory all of Union, SC; Angela Talley Robinson, of Spartanburg, SC; Donna Talley of Mauldin, SC; Dale Byrd and Korhonda Randolph, both of Marietta, GA; and a host of other loving family and friends
