Obituary

Troyvon Nasir Eason, known to most as “Turk”, was born on May 4, 2005 in Elizabeth City, North Carolina at Albemarle Hospital. Turk was born to Lakiesha Marie Eason and Troy Wagus Eason. Turk was predeceased by his sister Maya Alexander, his maternal grandfather Edward Spence, and his paternal grandfather Wagus Eason.

Turk attended, baptized and joined Mount Carmel Missionary Baptist Church at an early age. You would find him singing in the Youth Choir, participating in the Easter program, and enjoying the activities that involved the youth.

Turk attended schools in the Elizabeth City Pasquotank County public school system. He was currently attending Pasquotank County High School, where he was completing his sophomore year at the age of 15 years old. Turk was very interested in mentoring young boys. His involvement in The Young Gentlemen’s Club afforded him the opportunity to share how important it is to be respectful and focused on school. He would often share his experiences about being a student athlete and the importance of schoolwork. He was a member of the junior varsity football team where he played the positions of center, defensive tackle and guard. He loved playing baseball and was chosen to play on the All-American baseball team of the Camden Bears. He set a personal goal of becoming a scholar athlete.

Turk was known to his family and friends as loving, caring, and funny. The family will remember Turk for so many reasons. Our favorite will be missing hearing him say “Let me Hold something”, the mouse in the kitchen looking for something to eat after everyone went to bed, those huge arms consuming you with that kiss before he left, always saying I love you before he left, running to grandma’s house for his sisters when no one felt like it, and please don’t forget the SWAG!

Turk leaves to cherish his precious memory his parents, Troy Wagus and Lakiesha Marie Eason; sisters, Jasmine (Leandre) McGill, Clinesha Turner, G’Kyla Eason, JaSette Alexander, Kelis Alexander; his grandmothers, Janet Lee and Bernice Eason; his great grandfather, Leamond Carver; step-grandmother, Ms. Vickie Mann; his aunts, Takenya Stanley, Lisa Johnson, Tara Eason; his uncles, Terry Brown, and Reginald Tillet; his nephew, Maurice Bowser Jr.; his two nieces, J’Maya McGill and Nylah Spence; godmother, Angel Barclift; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

“Turk”
You gave no on a last farewell,
Nor ever said goodbye.
You were gone before we knew it,
And only God knows why.
A million times we will miss you.
A million times we will cry.
If love alone could have saved you,
You never would have died.
In life we loved you dearly.
In death we love you still.
In our hearts you hold a place,
No one else can fill.
It broke our hearts to lose you,
But you didn’t go along,
For part of us went with you,
The day God took you home.
We will meet again someday
I know in a better place.
I thank God he made you our son
While you were here on earth.

Love Mom and Dad
