Obituary

JaQuan Tobias White affectionately known as “Bigboy” was born in Elizabeth City, NC on March 14, 2003, to Lotrion White and Kimberly Lee. He traded his earthly life for eternal life on December 2, 2021.

JaQuan attended Guiding Light Apostolic Church at a young age. He received his education in the Pasquotank County, NC public school system and Tarheel Challenge Academy where he received his diploma. He was employed by FedEx and Lowe’s until the time of his passing. “Bigboy” worked hard to the best of his ability at all he sat his hands to. Whether he was writing music, performing or simply helping a friend, he always operated in a spirit of excellence. Never meeting a stranger, his selflessness, loving heart, sense of humor and infectious smile forged many genuine friendships. JaQuan will be greatly missed by everyone that knew him. He was the kind of young man that anyone would be proud to call son, grandson, and friend.

He leaves to cherish his memories, his loving mother, Kimberly Lee (Jirmel Johnson) of Elizabeth City, NC; father, Lotrion White (Ashakie Fazier) of California; maternal grandparents, Terry Williams of Greenville, NC and Juliet Murden of Elizabeth City, NC; paternal grandparents, Prince White of Camden, NC and Cynthia Pettaway (Kenny) of Elizabeth City, NC; siblings, Alaysiah White of Elizabeth City, NC, Myriah White of Chesapeake, VA, Destiny White, Amani Weeks, and Amayah Weeks all of Elizabeth City, NC and Lotrion White Jr. of California; special friends who were dear to his heart, Terry Griffin, Daquan Kee, Dominik Guyton, Diymend Guyton, Mikayla Guyton, Xantae Dix, Dana Griffin, Tiffany Griffin and Jahliel Johnson, (who preceded him in death); and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

“Big Boy”

You gave no one a last farewell,
Nor ever said goodbye.
You were gone before we knew it,
And only God knows why.
A million times we will miss you.
A million times we will cry.
If love alone could have saved you,
You never would have died.
In life we loved you dearly.
In death we love you still.
In our hearts you hold a place,
No one else can fill.
It broke our hearts to lose you,
But you didn’t go along,
For part of us went with you,
The day God took you home.
We will meet again someday
I know in a better place.
I thank God he made you our son
While you were here on earth.

Love Mom
