CELEBRATING
THE LIFE OF

JA'S

SUNRISE | FEBRUARY 25, 2011

SUNSET | NOVEMBER 3, 2021

TRIBUTES
TO

JA'SIAH

Ja'siah we miss you more and more, Ja'siah the beautiful person that lives. Every time we speak your name we will cry. Every time we hear your voice our hearts take an extra beat. Every time we think of you we will miss you more and more. Every time we think of your smile it make us joyful. Every time we walk pass your room we are truly blessed. But every time we think of you we will miss you more and more. Every time we saw you and made us feel so wonderful. Every time you told us about your day it felt joyful and right. Every time we think of you we will miss you more and more.

Ebony White; Tears that never fall

While your tears fall as rain mine are no longer able to be reproduced. Ja'siah, I will in no way attempt to act as if you didn't leave me in a impossible position. Because this level of pain can only be related to the direct cause of immediate death. For Every thought of you forces me to think more thoughts of you that give me extremely unparalleled imaginations creating every dream I have to only be about you. Allowing me no avenue of relief and sleep deprivation becomes an understatement. Most people chase their dreams but I fear mine because mine is of something I can no longer have in this realm of existence. You! My son the day I lost you physically became a moment I'll never be able to forget. My soul has been traded for grief. Forcing my mentality to become superior to my emotions, poisoning my feelings and now my tears have been forbidden to fall due to the destruction of earth. So I will forever mask my pain because the day I finally let go will be equivalent to the Big Bang and everything in existence will be destroyed. Ja'siah, my wish is for our final words to reach their destination which is each other's heart. My son when you left me you didn't simply take a part of me you took all of me. And for me to do anything without you since I was blessed to have you is incomprehensible, Unfathomable, immeasurable and impossible to comprehend. I will uphold your final words and not cry because I now have tears that will never fall. Tears that never fall...

Ja'siah Williams; Tears from above

Hello my beautiful mother, I'm writing this message to you with my skin as the paper and my tears as the ink. Because I will be receiving a new body with no tears, and this is my offering to you for being so amazing. But before you're alarmed understand that I'm at my highest level of communication. In which my words are the manifestation of perfection. And I'm no longer speaking to you from a 10-year old's/ mindset. 2 hearts and lives yours and mine 25 smiles for every second I think of you since my birth, 11 more years I would be 21 and still make you the happiest mother on earth. 3 for the Trinity you me and our God and back to 11 Equaling 11-3-21 & 2-25-11 letting you know I'm going to be loving you all the way from Heaven. We're meant to win because we both 10 your 37 and 3 plus 7 equals 10. Now you see how it's all in God's plan. So please don't cry for me because I'm watching over you from the comfort of God's hand. Beautiful mother of mine just because you won't be able to hear it from me again allow me to say it one more time. Happy New Years, Happy Birthday, Happy Thanksgiving, Merry Christmas, and Happy Mother's Day. I love you for pouring so much love into my life that allowed me to always be filled with bliss. And know that if I had a choice wishes or kisses I'll choose wishes and wish for more kisses. Because there's no love like the love from a mother. I love you so much mom. And know that my tears from above will fall like rain but wet you with love that will Soak to your soul and water your spirit. Allowing your essence to be bathed with my tears from above.

In loving memory of Ja'siah Williams
