Expressions of Gratitude

We the family of the late Ella Mae McCloud would like to express our sincere gratitude for all of your kind thoughts, cards, calls, flowers, food and words of love during this most difficult time. No amount of words can ever express our true feelings for the encouragement you gave. May God bless each one of you is our prayer

PRECIOUS MEMORIES

The Broken Chain

*We little knew that morning that
God was going to call your name,
In life we loved you dearly,
In death we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you,
You did not go alone.
For part of us went with you,
The day God called you home.
You left us peaceful memories,
Your love is still our guide,
And though we cannot see you,
you are always at our side.
Our family chain is broken,
And nothing seems the same,
But as God calls us one by one,
The chain will link again.*

Reflections of Life

Our Queen Ella Mae Brown McCloud was born in Candler County, Georgia on December 22, 1951 to the late Johnny and Albertha Lee Brown. She was a loving and compassionate mother, sister, grandmother, aunt and friend. She attended and graduated from the Evans County School system in the class of 1971.

At a young age she joined St. Luke Missionary Baptist Church in Daisy, GA. She was a faithful and devoted member and served on the Nurse Aid and Mission Committees.

On February 20, 1969 she was joined in holy matrimony to the late Robert B. McCloud. From this union they were blessed with three children.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Johnny and Albertha Lee Brown, husband Robert B. McCloud and daughter Trina D. McCloud; two sisters Gertice Appleby and Mary Ann Brewton; two brothers Johnny F. Brown and Paul L. Brown.

Ella Mae's (Kootney) spirit continues to live in the hearts of her son, Robert L. McCloud and daughter Alicia McCloud both of Pembroke, GA; grandson Johnathan E. McCloud of Savannah, GA, additional daughter Tristen N. Glover and god-daughter Natasha Miller both of Pembroke, GA; sisters Edna Mae (Jimmy) McKeever of Daisy, GA, Willie Jane McCray of Vidalia, GA and Bertha (Leroy) Clayton of Dorchester, MA; three faithful best friends Corrine (Vernard) Furman, Mary Dean Jones and Agnes "Libby" Rawls and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
