Obituary

James Harvey was born on September 5, 1942 in Brooklyn, NY to the late Lilly Mae Collins Harvey and James Douglas Harvey, both preceded him in death and one brother Patrick Carrow

He moved to Staten Island, NY at an early age and attended P.S. 44 and later graduated from Port Richmond High School. While attending Port Richmond High School he joined the ROTC and later enlisted in the United States Navy receiving an award for Expeditionary Medal (Dominican Republic). After working several jobs in the printing industry on Wall Street, Tucker Anthony and RL Day, Jewish Theology Seminar and New school for Social Research, James worked for NY city Department of Transportation which later merge with NYC Police Department where he retired on January 14, 2005 as Supervisor of Traffic with 23 years of service. He was well known and respect as he took pride in whatever he did.

Honoring his memory his wife Shirley Bacon Harvey, two daughters Danielle (Luke) Stanyek Brooklyn, NY, and Isha Harvey Dekalb County, GA; four sons Arnold L. Harvey (Robin), Aldie, VA, Terrance Harvey Monaca, PA, James Darren Harvey, Seattle, WA and James Harvey Jr, Stone Mountain, GA; one sister Marianne Moore Staten, NY and one sister-in-law Sandra D. Bacon, Bronx, NY; five brother-in-laws Jerome Bacon Jr. (Jolene), Mikel Bacon, and Gary Bacon all of Claxton, GA, Anthony Bacon, Bronx, NY and Napoleon Williams (Jo Ann) Temecula, CA; five grandchildren Gabriella Harvey, Alexander Harvey, Nia Stanyek, Maya Standyek and Imani Travis. A host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. Harvey as we affectionately called him loved life and his family. We were always planning trips to go visit with them. He had many special friends from his high school years loving all sort of cards games.

Psalms 23

A Psalm of David.

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

2

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

3

D

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

P

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

M

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

S

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

The Broken Chain Poem

We little knew the day that
God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly.
In death we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you,
But you didn't go alone.
For part of us went with you.
The day God called you home,
You left us peaceful memories.
Your love is still our guide,
And though we cannot see you,
You are always at our side.
Our family chain is broken
and nothing seems the name,
but as God calls us one by one
the chain will link again.
