I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.*

*I could not stay another day, to laugh, to love
to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way, I found that place at the close of the day.*

If my parting has left a void, then fill it with remembered joy. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, Ah, yes, these things I too will miss.

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow, I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life's been full, I've savored much;
friends, good times, a loving touch.*

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief, don't lengthen it with undue grief. Lift up your heart and share with me, God wanted me now-
He set me free.*

Obituary

“Precious Lord Take My Hand”

Vernon Medlin, the son of the late Joe White and the late Emma Medlin was born January 30, 1952. He departed this life on Monday, July 26, 2021, at his home. He was born in Wake County, North Carolina and attended Apex Consolidated High School.

He was preceded in death by his adopted parents, after the passing of his biological parents, Mr. Nerman and Magaline Mangum. One brother Kenny Medlin and two sisters, Ozell Medlin and Ethel Mae Burt.

Vernon was employed with Apex Lumber Company and Chatham Commons Rest Home in Cary, NC and he later worked for Triangle Brick in Morrisville, NC. After he retired he became the caretaker for many of his loved ones.

Vernon was a member of Christian Home Christian Church, and being there always gave him so much peace and happiness. Vernon was always there to help his family members in anyway. He loved being around his family and friends having a good time. In his last few years Vernon's health began to fail, but he would always say, "I'm okay!" That was just his way. Vernon was a good man.

Vernon leaves to cherish his memory a son Andre Medlin of Atlanta, GA; two sisters, Maragaret Jones of New York and Louise of Raleigh, NC; one brother Ervin Medlin of New York; six grandchildren and one great-grandchild; two adopted sisters Mrs. Mary Ann Minter and Mrs. Marie Ann Dantzer both of Apex, NC; two very special friends who he loved dearly Mr. Jerry Lewis and Mrs. Peggy Jean Speed and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends that will miss him dearly.
