Love Lives On Author Unknown

Those we love remain with us
for love itself lives on,
and cherished memories never fade
because a loved one's gone.
Those we love can never be more than a thought apart,
for as long as there is memory
They'll live on in the heart.

Obituary

“Let not your heart be troubled; you believe in God, believe also in me. In My Father’s house are many mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you.”

James Henry McKoy, Jr. was born in Harnett County, North Carolina May 27, 1950 to the late James Henry and Otha Smith McKoy. He departed this life on Thursday, July 29, 2021 in Sanford, North Carolina.

James attended Chatham County public schools and Horton High School in Pittsboro, North Carolina. As a young man he had a love for cars and motorcycles and spent most of his life working as a skilled mechanic. He enjoyed being outdoors and working on someone’s (or his) car.

“Koy” as he was affectionately called by his siblings never met a stranger and had a ready smile and contagious laugh for everyone he met as if they were old friends.

James was preceded in death by his maternal grandparents, Robert & Kizzie Smith and paternal grandparents Henry and Daisy McKoy.

James leaves to cherish his memory, his daughter Tinya Cagle of Raleigh, NC; four sisters, Mattie Barbee (Clifton) of Apex, NC; Carolyn McKoy of Dunn, NC; Shirley Hagan (Wilbert) of Garner, NC and Nancy Thomas (John) of Holly Springs, NC; three brothers, Johnnie McKoy of Fuquay-Varina, NC; Louis McKoy and Patrick McKoy both of Raleigh, NC; four grandchildren, Khaliq, Zaheer, Tinya Naasirah, and Joi, three great-grandchildren, King, Carter and Nasirah Mulan and a host of other relatives and friends.
