

Gone is the face we loved so dear,
And silent is the voice we loved to hear.
We miss him now, our hearts are sore,
As time goes by, we'll miss him more.

His loving smile, his gentle face,
No one can fill his vacant place.

For all of us you did your best,
May God grant you eternal rest.

Acknowledgements

The Laster Family is so grateful for all acts of kindness expressed during our hours of bereavement. No matter how great or small, you show your love for us. We pray God will abundantly bless and keep you. Please pray for our strength in the days ahead that the God of peace will wrap His loving arms around us and wipe all tears from our eyes. Also, a special "thank you" to UNC Hospital doctors and staff for the superb quality of service, professionalism and their genuine concern for our loved one.

~Obituary~

John Aaron Laster was born September 30,1960 to the late James Andrew Laster and Verily Page Laster. In addition to his parents, he was predeceased by a sister, Valorie Travon Laster.

He attended Cary High School. Some of his work employment included the North Carolina Museum of Art, Oxford University Press, LaQuinta Inn & Suites, Cary School of Music and The Matthews House. He attended the Kingdom Hall whenever he could and would also have bible studies for more spiritual guidance.

In his spare time, he loved cooking, gardening, potting plants, and listening to music. He knew many songs from the 70s and 80s by ear. He was free spirited, never met a stranger, and always willing to help others when he could. He was the life of the party and kept us laughing. Surely family and friends have many good memories of great times.

He leaves to cherish his memories three daughters, Aisha L. Jenkins (Allen) of Raleigh, NC, Shannon Wade of Raleigh, NC and Erin Wade of Durham, NC. He leaves ten grandchildren who will always remember him as “Papa John”, Kywren Wade, Kaelan Wade, Keiran Wade, Karson Wade, Joniah Wade, Jeremiah Wade, Jaron Wade, Jade Wade, Alexandria Jenkins and Abrielle Jenkins, a sister Queen L. Monk (Dexter) of Cary, NC, two brothers Price A. Laster (Sheila) and Joseph E. Laster of Apex, a niece Courtney Y. Laster and other family members and friends.
