~Obituary~

Mr. Wallace Junior Ryles (Dobecky) was born to the late Vance and Lillie Ryles on December 15, 1941. He passed in peace at the age of 80 on May 11, 2022.

Wallace was born and raised in Harnett County, North Carolina. He attended Wake County schools.

Wallace was a Truck Driver, Fire Starter and a Showstopper!!

Wallace was blessed with a large and loving family. He married the love of his life and best friend, Nadine Kelley Ryles on July 9, 1994. One of his greatest joys was spending time and caring for his wife and spending time with his loving canine friends Boots, China, CoCo and Sophie.

Wallace had many skills, but his favorites were landscaping and small engine repair. He loved family but especially the children of the family. Wallace loved giving the children nick names which all of them loved having from him. Wallace would meet you with an infectious half grin and wise countenance. He loved to make people laugh by telling jokes as he had a tremendous sense of humor. Dancing and fishing were some of his favorite past-times. Wallace was always full of life and love.

Wallace gave his life to the Lord. In most recent years he listened attentively to Haw River Missionary Baptist Church Bible Study conference call every week and he also listened to True Community Church broadcast.

Wallace will be fondly remembered by his wife, Nadine Kelley Ryles, Fuquay-Varina, NC; one son Joseph Herndon, Garner, NC; one daughter Tara McEachin, Richmond, VA; one sister Sarah Ryles Harrington, Friendship, NC; 10 grandchildren: Anesha, Martius, LaToya, Rashad, T'Yana, Tristina, Tierra, Treshon, Quinasia and Khalil; 13 great-grandchildren; brothers-in-law: James F. Kelley, Leroy Kelley, Sr. (Cynthia), Barry Kelley (Linda); sisters-in-law: Vanessa Kelley and Annette Kelley and a special brother-in law Rodney Scott and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
