Acknowledgement

The passing of our loved one has brought us to a fuller realization of what it means to have such wonderful neighbors, co-workers, friends, and brothers and sisters-in-Christ. You have helped us bear our sorrow and eased our heartfelt pain. The family is grateful to all you for the many deeds of love, kindness and concern shown during the death of our loved one. Your prayers, cards, gifts, and kind thoughts, during this period, have meant more to us than words will ever express. We thank God for you. May He continue to bless you and keep you in His loving care.

The Family

Safely Home

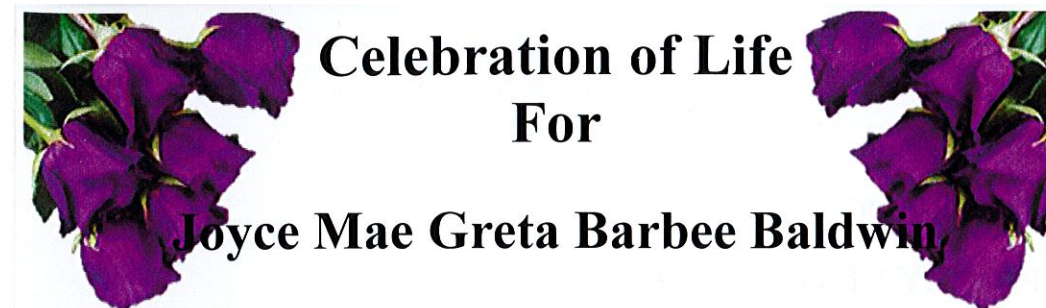

*I am home in Heaven dear ones; Oh so happy and so bright!
There is perfect joy and beauty in this everlasting light.
All the pain and grief is over, every restless tossing passed;
I am now at peace forever, safely home in Heaven at last.
Did you wonder how I so calmly trod the valley of the shade?
Oh! But Jesus' love illumined every dark and fearful glade.
And He came Himself to meet me in that way so hard to tread;
And with Jesus' arm to lean on could I have one doubt or dread?
Then you must not grieve so sorely, for I love you dearly still;
Try to look beyond earth's shadows, pray to trust our Father's will.
There is work still waiting for you, so you must not idly stand;
Do it now, while life remaineth, you shall rest in Jesus' land.
When the work is all completed He will gently call you home;
Oh, the pleasure of that meeting, Oh, the joy to see you come.*

~Obituary~

JOYCE MAE GRETA BARBEE BALDWIN was born January 17, 1946 in Wake County, North Carolina. She was the youngest of four children born to the late Henderson Barbee and Lois Farrington Barbee. She entered into eternal rest on July 4, 2022 at her home.

Joyce gave her life to Christ at a very tender age and joined New Hope Missionary Baptist Church in Apex, North Carolina where she remained a faithful until her death. In her early years she regularly attended Sunday School with her family. She was active in the Junior Missionary Circle and the Baptist Training Union (BTU) in the church. She also served the church as a member of the Gospel Choir, as Chairperson of the Kitchen Ministry and as Church Custodian.

Joyce was educated in in the Wake County and Chatham County Public Schools. She graduated from Horton High School in Pittsboro, North Carolina in 1964.

Joyce married her high school sweetheart, Thomas Earl Baldwin on March 21, 1964 in Chatham County, North Carolina. To this union two children were born, Angela Teresa and Thomas Wesley.

She was employed in various positions at UNC Hospital in Chapel Hill, NC for approximately thirty years. After retirement she worked as a contractor with NCBA (National Caucus and Center on Black Aging) as an Administrative Assistant in their Administrative Office and with the EPA (Environmental Protection Agency) for the SEE (Senior Environmental Employment) Program in Research Triangle Park, NC.

Joyce was a member of Silver Leaf #140 OES in Apex, NC. She was a Past Matron and had served as Treasurer and Worthy Matron. She served as the Past Commandress for the Daughter of Isis and Loyal Lady Ruler of the Golden Circle. She attended conferences and conventions of these organizations annually.

Joyce loved to sew and was an excellent seamstress. She also loved caring for house plants. But most of all she loved and cherished her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. They had a special place in her heart and she supported them in all of their activities.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Thomas Earl Baldwin and her sister Mabel Baldwin Winston.

She leaves to cherish loving memories two children, Angela Teresa Baldwin Alston and husband David Alston of Durham, NC and Thomas Wesley Baldwin and wife Chontal Baldwin of Bear Creek, NC; two sisters Juanita Davis and Betty Cole of Apex, NC; eight grandchildren Tiara Alston, and David “DJ” Alston, Jr. of Durham, NC, Dejah Alston of Charlotte, NC, Tyesha Baldwin and Tyrell Baldwin of Apex, NC, Reginald Reese of Raleigh, NC, Tiyana Baldwin and Amari McClain of Bear Creek, ; four great-grandchildren, Jeremiah Oliver, Carter Oliver and Lennox Whitted-Alston of Durham, NC and Nola Colquitt of Apex, NC; and a host of nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends.
