

to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done.

I'd like to leave an echo whispering down the ways, Of happy times and laughing and bright and sunny days. I'd like the tears of grief to dry before the sun of happy memories that I leave when life is done.

251 Hi...

to have a praying grandma its an indescribable feeling. I was ine loving spirit. She was the matriarch of the family. The glue re for God and unwavering faith in God has impacted us all. She nd loving people. If you had an issue call Tommie and she would ray you outta anything. It was like a direct line to God. Let's not e had a very unique style and was a beast at sewing. If she saw it I'm really going to miss her singing, cooking, and her humor. "I
