

A Loving TRIBUTE

Every day as the wind blows and the sun rises life seems to slow down It slows down in the best ways At the perfect time when i feel like I'm going to drown, drown in the pain of you not being here. You always seem to catch me Cradling me in our memories. With thoughts of you playing in every second . As I'm clinging on to every minute I miss you. And I know your no longer with us but those moments we've had bring me peace. Because you will live forever in my heart for an eternity Until we meet again

To JB from Siblings

*In sorrow we saw you sinking, and watched you fade away.
Our hearts were almost broken we wanted you to stay.
But when we saw you sleeping peaceful, free from pain;
How could we with you back with us to suffer again?
It broke our hearts to lose you but you didn't go alone:
For our hearts were with you the day God to you home.*

After Glow

I'd like the memory of me,
To be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an afterglow
Of smiles, when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo,
Whispering softly down the ways.
Of happy times and laughing times,
& bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve,
To dry before the sun.
Of happy memories that I leave behind
When my life is done.
"Love Johnny"

Loving Memories

We'll Smile Just As Much
We'll shed some tears
But we'll smile just as much
Cause although you're not here
We can still feel your touch,
Your smile so bright
Your laugh is out of sight,
Your love so complete, it made our hearts skip a beat, One of a kind,
that's what you are, everybody knows
you're the best by far!!!
We Love You!!
Always & Forever

Forever
in our Hearts

Johnny's Life Story

Johnny Lee Alford (AKA) JB, as he is affectionately known to family and friends, was born on March 3, 1954 and quietly departed this life on Wednesday June 23, 2021. Born the 4th child of the late Carrie and Robert Lee Alford, JB was a warm fun loving individual.

JB was educated in the Camden Public School System, later he enrolled into the Goodwill School and Training Center during the early seventies where upon completion he graduated and began working. After many years, JB switched careers and began working in the food industry as a Food Prepper (Sous Chef) for two well-known Restaurants located in the City of Camden, Mario's and Rocco's, until he took ill and was no longer able to work.

At an early age Carrie Alford (Mother) made sure all the Alford Children learned about Christ and His love.

All that knew JB knew that he LOVED music and a "good party". As soon as the music began he would be the first on the Dance Floor! And he would dance, dance, and dance.

JB never had any biological children of his own, but he had a great host of nieces, nephews, whom he loved; grands, and great-great grands. But there were two nieces in particular that he held a very special place in his heart, Kiesha (Fat Shirley) and Tanisha (Coo-Coo Berry).

JB leaves to mourn his passing, Nine (9) Siblings, Nathaniel Piers (Cleveland Ohio), Freddie Alford (Nila), Carolyn Rogers (Nicholas), Earl Alford (Izora), Teresa (Fay) Edmonds, Gloria Alford, Leon Alford, Sandra (Yvonne) Alford, Michael Alford, all of Camden, NJ; Two (2) Aunts, Mattie Brown (Vero Beach, Florida), Lydia Solomon (Vero Beach, Florida); Three (3) Uncles, Jimmy Lee Solomon (Camden, NJ), Willie Lee Solomon, Mack Brown (Vero Beach, Florida); Two special lifelong friends: Mark Diggs, Thomas Turner.

Preceding him in death, Mother and Father Robert Lee and Carrie Alford; Sister, Marjorie Ann Alford.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free I'm following the path
God laid for me. I took His hand when I heard him call;
I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play. Tasks left undone must stay that way; I found that place at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void, Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared a laugh, a kiss; Ah yes, these things, I too will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life's been full, I savored much; Good friends, good times, a loved ones touch.
Perhaps my time seems all to brief; Don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free
