

Loving Memories

After Glow

I'd like the memory of me,
To be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an afterglow
Of smiles, when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo,
Whispering softly down the ways.
Of happy times and laughing times,
& bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve,
To dry before the sun.
Of happy memories that I leave behind
When my life is done.

"Love Sincere"

Your kind expression of sympathy and friendship will always remain in our memories. Thank you for your thoughtfulness

Sincere's Life Story

Sincere Christian Rios, I remember when I was in labor with Sincere. It was painful, and the pushing was even more difficult. But after an hour and a half of me pushing, my son was here.

He was perfect. And we were happy. Then, my baby got his hearing test done and he failed. His eyes were examined and they said he had cataracts. Then, they decided to take my baby to the NICU. After a week of testing and x-rays, we found out that our baby had heart problems. The hospital didn't know how to help, so they transported him to Nemours. They spent a couple of weeks finding more and more problems in his liver and lungs. They told us how rare his condition was, and how they didn't know what could fix all of this. Despite trying multiple therapies and attempting surgery, Sincere was put on life support. Unfortunately, it wasn't supporting him at all, and we made the decision to no longer leave him suffering.

On December 17th at 5:53 pm, Sincere took his last breath. We weren't ready to say goodbye, but God had other plans for our baby. We will love him and remember him forever.

Sincere is survived by his Mom, Dad, grandparents, great grandparents.

Sleep in eternal peace, Sincere Christian Rios.

They tell me it's amazing how I've stayed so strong, but they don't see how I cry when I hear your song.

They see the smile on my face
but miss the hurt in my eye.

I would rather seem rude than let them see me cry.
I put on this front as I don't want the world to see the pain and sorrow so deep inside me.

I don't act this way 'cause,
I'm ashamed to feel the way I do.

I act this way in honor of you,
because although I hurt right now and my heart is broken, I can't help but feel pride and love when your name is spoken.

My strength comes from the love you gave to me, and it's that strength I want the world to see.
