

After Glow

I'd like the memory of me,
To be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an afterglow
Of smiles, when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo,
Whispering softly down the ways.
Of happy times and laughing times,
& bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve,
To dry before the sun.
Of happy memories that I leave behind
When my life is done.

Love Richard

To Those I Love

*When I am gone, just release me, and let me go –
So I can move into my afterglow.
You mustn't tie me down with your tears;
Let's be happy that we had so many years.
I gave you my love, you can only guess
How much you gave me in happiness.
I thank you for the love you each have shown
but now it's time I traveled on alone.
So grieve for me awhile, if grieve you must,
then let your grief be comforted with trust.
It's only for a while that we must part,
so bless the memories within your heart.
And then, when you must come this way alone,
I'll greet you with a smile and a
"Welcome Home."*

Richard's Life Story

Richard Henry Carter was born in Atlantic City, New Jersey, on April 8, 1954 to Mary Elizabeth Woodall-Carter.

He grew up in Pleasantville, NJ, where he took care of his mother Mary Elizabeth Woodall-Carter.

He worked ever since the age of twelve (12) years old. He started his cooking career assisting the Head Chef in a restaurant in Atlantic City. He later became Head Chef at Seaview Country Club, now known as the Marriot.

He enjoyed playing pool, watching boxing and playing the lottery. He loved buying scratch off tickets and playing his numbers. He was last employed at Ocean Club Condominium and worked as a valet until he retired.

He leaves behind his daughter Cherise Carter, his son Rashon White; his brother Jerome Jackson; his grandson Nazir White; his granddaughter Maiya White; and his great-granddaughter Valida White and many other family and friends.
