*Elvera
Young*

*And I heard a voice from heaven, saying,
"Write, Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on!" ... "Yes, says the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors, for their deeds follow with them."*

LIFE REFLECTIONS

Young*

Elvera was born on January 26, 1932, in West Point, Mississippi to Mary and Nelson Scott. She was united in Holy Matrimony to Emanuel Young, Sr. on November 22, 1954.

Her parents led her to Christ at an early age and she embraced the spiritual life and was an active member of several churches throughout her life. She was a prayer warrior.

Elvera attended and graduated from Mary Holmes College in West Point and was a licensed practical nurse upon graduating from nursing school.

She served in and was employed by numerous hospitals and nursing homes over the course of her career as a nurse and healthcare professional.

Elvera was called home to be with our Lord on Thursday, January 21, 2021.

She was preceded in death by her devoted husband, loving daughter, and several loving family, extended family, and church family members.

Elvera leaves to cherish her fond memories: two loving sons, Emanuel and Kirk; grandson, Christian; goddaughter, Alta; niece, Gwendolyn; grandniece, Myesha; and a nephew, cousins, many devoted relatives and friends, and a large church family.

God's Garden

*God looked around his garden and found an empty place.
He then looked down upon his earth, and saw your loving face.
He put his arms around you and lifted you to rest.
His garden must be beautiful, he always takes the best.
He knew that you were suffering, he knew you were in pain.
He knew that you would never get well on earth again.
He saw your path was difficult, he closed your tired eyes,
He whispered "Peace be Thine" and gave you wings to fly.
When we saw you sleeping so clam and free of pain.
We would not wish you back to earth to suffer once again.
You've left us precious memories, your love will be our guide.
You live on through your children, you're always by our side.
It broke our hearts to lose you but you did not go alone.
For part of us went with you the day God called you home.*

Acknowledgement

The family of Elvera Young greatly appreciates all the kind words and deeds that have been shown towards them. Our hearts have been lifted by your prayers and sympathy. The family asks that you continue to keep them in your prayers. Thank you.
