Dorothy

JEAN MANNING

Dorothy Jean Manning was born on July 19, 1946, to Carry Lee Dorsey in Clayton, Alabama. Dorothy was the third oldest of seven siblings.

Dorothy accepted Christ at an early age in her native hometown of Clayton, Alabama, where she attended a Baptist church and was a member of their choir. She continued nurturing her relationship with the Lord after becoming a resident in Illinois and became a member of First Baptist Church of Bellwood for 10 plus years with her children. She later became a member of Living Word Christian Center with her husband Don and her daughters and attended for 15 plus years.

Dorothy worked at Park De-Watt for many years while attended nursing school at Triton College in River Grove. She was later employed at Loyola University Medical Center in Maywood, IL for the latter part of her career as a Licensed Practical Nurse.

In heaven, Dorothy will join her brothers, Bobby, Earl and Billy Dorsey; and youngest sister, Francine.

Dorothy leaves to cherish her loving memories, her husband, Donald Manning; three daughters, Marlo, Mia, and Millicent; stepson, Donald Manning, Jr.; thirteen grandchildren, Candace, Joy, Zarell, Tianna, Joe Jr., Raevyn, Zavell, Asibayo, Brittany, Khala, Jaelynn, Raysean, and Jelani.

Tributes of Love

My Heart Is So Broken

I don't know what to say. I feel like I can't move on without you Mommy, so I have to stop and pray. This debilitating feeling is empty, heavy, and numb. The constant denial in my heart that this day would ever come. My soul still feels the warmth of yours as if you are still here. But as each day passes, I know it's not true and I'm overwhelmed with tears. I see you in my children's smiles and mostly in my own. The manifestation of your angelic love in every seed you've sown. My heart is your heart and my love is yours too. And I love that I feel like a small version of you. My mind seems to be on repeat, and I won't let it play because if I do, I'll remember that you're gone and that I am not ok. You are my Rock, and since removed my grounding disappeared. But god reminded me He is my rock, and I shall have no fear and that you are in His arms, my own little Angel, watching over me. And that His favor still remains, until I can hug you again in eternity. I love you Mommy.

Mom

Mom, in life I loved you dearly, in death I love you still. In my heart you hold a place no one can ever fill. All I have are memories of you and a picture in a frame and I will truly truly miss you until we meet again! I love you always & forever Mom.

Love Your Daughter, Marlioski

Mom

My heart is very heavy today but I know that for sure you are present with the good Lord in eternity. There are never enough words to express my love and the wonderful beautiful Mom that you were to me. I thank you so much for all the great things you have taught me and the number one most important thing that has followed me all my life is to trust and believe in God and always PRAY!! I miss you so much Mommy and I will always cherish the Love we had and every memory we spent together! I will see you again!!

Love, Mia/Moshi

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call,
I turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with the remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah, yes, these things I too, will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow---*

*I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I've savored much,
Good friends, good times and a loved one's touch.*

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts and share with me---
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
