

If Tears Could Build a Stairway

If tears could build a stairway,
and memories a lane
We would walk right up to Heaven and bring you back again.
No farewell words were spoken,
no time to say "Goodbye"
You were gone before we knew it,
and only God knows why.
My heart still aches with sadness,
and secret tears still flow.
What it meant to lose you No one will ever know.
But now we know you want us to mourn for you no more
To remember all the happy times
Life still has much in store.
Since you'll never be forgotten,
we pledge to you today
A hallowed place within our hearts is where you'll always stay.

Life Profile

Mr. Steve Eugene Jackson was born to the late Vonell Jackson and Minister Earline Hall Jackson on March 9, 1961, in Spartanburg, SC. He was educated in the Inman public school system and during high school, Steve played football and carried his team to the state championship. He joined Ridgeville Baptist Church at an early age. Of all his accomplishments, the greatest was being saved and loving the Lord.

Steve leaves to cherish memories to his wife, Evangelist Pecolia Jackson of the home; mother, Minister Earline Jackson of Inman, SC; daughter, Ivy C. Rowland of Chesnee, SC; bonus children, Vanessa Walker of Johnston, SC, Robert (Regina) Nesbitt of Birmingham, AL, Erika (Christopher) Jones Nesbitt of Washington, DC, Timothy Nesbitt of Silver Springs, MD and Natalie (David) Hairston of Ft. Washington, MD; sisters, Sandra Shell and Barbara Byrd of Inman, SC, Edith (TJ) Jones and Carolyn Johnson of Boiling Springs, SC and Wilma (Joe) Smith of Campobello, SC; brother, Roger Jackson of Inman, SC; grandchildren, Juauanna Rowland, Zyhir Rice, Zaleek Rowland, Emahjai McGill, Arianna McGill, Kamarri McGill, Jaih-Zirh Mand a brother, McGill, and Mah-Vellos McGill all of Chesnee, SC; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, and friends.

Steve was preceded in death, along with his father, by a sister, Diana Clark and brothers-in-law, Minister Stanley Johnson, James Clark, and C. J. Byrd. On April 19, 2022, he heard our Saviors call for him to come and rest in his heavenly home.

He loved his family and had a happy and lively personality that we will miss for sure, but not the pain you had to endure.
