A Letter From Heaven

When tomorrow starts without me
and I'm not here to see,
If the sun should rise and find your eyes,
filled with tears for me.
I wish so much you wouldn't cry,
the way you did today,
While thinking of the many things,
we didn't get to say.
I know how much you love me
as much as I love you;
And each time that you think of me,
I know you'll miss me, too
When tomorrow starts without me,
Don't think we're far apart
For every time you think of me,
I'm right there in your heart.

Life Profile

Lillie Bell Jackson was born on November 11, 1943, to the late Minnie Black Nash and the late Victor Nash, Sr., in Spartanburg County. She was affectionately known to all that knew her as, "Bell". She possessed a loving and cheerful spirit and was a delight to everyone she encountered, even strangers. She was partial to the colors purple and yellow, and her favorite pass time was playing Bingo.

Left to cherish loving memories are her husband, James Jackson of the home; daughter, Cheryl (Sterling Carl) Jackson of Spartanburg, SC; son, Herbert Jackson of Spartanburg, SC; sisters, Minnie L. Peake and Grace Barksdale both of Pauline, SC; brothers, Ernest Nash of Chesnee, SC, Charles Nash of Spartanburg, SC, Victor (Elder Louise) Nash of Pauline, SC, Nathaniel (Shirley Mae) Nash of Union, SC, Reverend Deso Nash of Pauline, SC, and Curtis (Minnie) Nash of Spartanburg, SC; grandchildren, Justyn (Harmony) Jackson of Greer, SC, Sterlin Jackson of Spartanburg, SC, and Courtney Jackson of Boiling Springs, SC; great-grandchild, Avery Jackson of Greer, SC; aunt, Mandia Nash of Spartanburg, SC; uncle, Izell (Reverend Bessie) Black of Spartanburg, SC; sisters-in-law, Coleen Nash of Spartanburg, SC, Doris J. Davis and Dianne Jackson both of Pompano Beach, FL, Charoleen Jackson of Oklahoma City, OK and Theresa J. (Daniel) Miller of Spartanburg, SC; brothers-in-law, Robert Jackson of Oklahoma City, OK, David (Shirley) Jackson and Robert Wells both of Spartanburg, SC; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Bell was predeceased, along with her parents, by a brother, George Nash, Sr., Lucille T. Nash, John Davis, Master Sargent John Jackson, Sr., Monroe Jackson, Annie Wells, and mother-in-law, Nellie Jackson.

On April 12, 2022, Bell heard the master's call to come into His house of love, peace, and joy forevermore.
