Life Profile

Arillie Shands Wells was born on July 23, 1944, to the late Wilson Shands and the late Lois Lyles Shands in Spartanburg, SC. She was a graduate of Lincoln High School of Fairforest, SC, and also obtained an Associate Degree from Cecil's Business College of Spartanburg, SC.

Arillie was self-employed as a Cosmetologist for many years. She loved flowers and enjoyed working in her flower gardens. Arillie, a prophetess in her own right, loved the Lord, her family, and her friends dearly. She was known to be a prayer warrior, as many people called upon her as a prayer partner. Arillie never met a stranger and she loved to cook and can fruits and vegetables.

Arillie leaves to cherish fond and loving memories to a daughter, Priscilla Means of Spartanburg, SC; sisters, Doris Fuller, Cassie Campbell, and Lessie (William) Ross all of Spartanburg, SC; brothers, Dogan (Rosa) Shands, Ellis Shands, and Wayne (Reba) Shands all of Spartanburg, SC; a grandson, Pierce Means of Spartanburg, SC; an aunt, Fannie Rogers of Spartanburg, SC; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, and friends.

She was predeceased, along with her parents, by a son, Sebastian Wells; brothers, John L. Shands, R. P. Shands, Jack Pearson, and Ray Wallace Shands; and brothers-in-law, William Campbell and J.C. Fuller.

On Thursday morning, May 12, 2022, Arillie folded her earthly tent and is now resting with the savior. A life well lived and a journey completed.

The Hairdresser

What secrets were revealed
Whilst mirrored in that chair
All caped or gowned and waiting
For the trusted hairdresser to share

As scissors work at a frenzy
Feverishly between cuts and snips
She listened intently with friendly ear
Empathy at her fingertips

Day after day, week after week
So many tales did she acquaint
Remaining focused in the task at hand
But with the prayers and patience of a saint
