His Journey

Alvin Julian Nesbitt, aka "Boogie", was born on January 7, 1968, to the late Ruby Beasley Nesbitt and the late John Nesbitt. He was educated in Spartanburg County Schools and graduated from Byrnes High School in Duncan, SC. Alvin retired early, due to health complications, from the City of Spartanburg. He loved to have fun, enjoyed dancing, and listened to all genres of music; which is how he got the nickname "Boogie". Just as much as he liked to "boogie down", he liked to dress up in true "GQ" fashion. Alvin liked all sports, but his favorite team was the NFL's Dallas Cowboys.

Those left to cherish Alvin's memories are his wife, Freda Nesbitt of Spartanburg, SC; two daughters, Laquinta Nesbitt of Hartwell, GA, and Alfreda Nesbitt of Spartanburg, SC; two brothers, Pastor Claude (Fonda) Nesbitt, Sr. of Rock Hill, SC and Ernest (Shirley)Nesbitt of Greer, SC; mother-in-law, Diane Casey of Spartanburg, SC; longtime friend/brother, James Earl "Jimmy" Rogers of Spartanburg, SC; nine grandchildren and a host of other relatives and friends.

Alvin was preceded in death by his parents.

On Monday, August 1, 2022, Alvin Julian Nesbitt entered eternal rest.

I Miss You, Daddy

You never said I'm leaving
You never said goodbye.
You were gone before I knew it
And only God knew why.
A million times I cried
If love alone could have saved you
You never would have died.
In life I loved you dearly
In death I love you still.
In my heart you hold a place
That no one could ever fill.
I love you, Daddy.

Your Daughter,
Alfreda Nesbitt
