

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free.
I'm following the path God has chosen for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call;
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work, or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way;
I've now found peace at the end of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joys:
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss.
Oh, yes, these things I, too, will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow;
Look for the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life has been full; I savored much:
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch. Perhaps my time seems all too brief; don't lengthen your pain with undue grief. Lift up your heart, and peace to thee.

God wanted me now—He has set me free.

Obituary

Julia Moore Cohen was born on October 9, 1944, to the late A. B. Moore and Bertha Sims Moore in Spartanburg County. She was a 1962 graduate of Foster Grove High School. She was a food service manager for Spartanburg County for many years. Julia loved drinking Pepsi, playing spades, cooking, and watching soap operas. Her favorite color was green, and she had a vivacious spirit. She was of the Baptist faith.

She leaves to cherish fond and loving memories to her daughter, Joekeitha Reddish of the home; stepdaughter, Deborah Rickett of Spartanburg, SC; sons, Michael Kelley of the home, Marlon Nesbitt and Lajuane Nesbitt of Spartanburg, SC; stepson, Kenneth Cohen of Spartanburg, SC; sister, Maggie Butler of Una, SC; goddaughter, Lynn Moore of Spartanburg, SC; brothers, Johnny Moore and Willie Moore of Spartanburg, SC; seven sisters-in-law; three brothers-in-law; and host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, great-great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and other relatives and friends.

She was preceded in death by her sons, Raymond Kelley and Otis Kelley; brothers, Harold Moore and Marshall Moore; and sister, Glorist Foster.

On Wednesday, August 17, 2022, Julian, surrounded by family, entered eternal rest. Her loving spirit will be a beacon of light forever to all who loved and knew her.
