How do we go on.....

How do we go on when our hearts is still broken
With the thought of him gone and things left unspoken
How do we go on when the quiets too loud to bare
With the loneliness and wishing he was still here
How do we go on.....

In time we will learn different ways to cope.
We will reminisce on his smile and the way he told jokes
We will continue his legacy with laughter and song
We will laugh hard and dance wild in our hearts where he belongs
Thru this tough time we may share some tears
But I know he'd rather us laugh and cherish the time he was here
So cry if you must but laugh when you can when we came and telling jokes he was always the man
So now that God has called him and by his side he will be Telling jokes singing songs cherishing sweet memories.

Obituary

"I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith; Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness". II Timothy 4:7-8

Garry Neil Steward was born June 17th, 1955 to John Ella Evans and Laden Bell in Cleveland , Ohio.

It was at an early age that Garry met Ruby Jean Robinson and they fell in love and were married. In 1974 Garry became a soldier in the United States Marines to provide a better life for his family. He was honorably discharged as a Corporal.

Garry and Jean provided a wonderful Life for themselves and their three children. He accepted Christ and was baptized as an adult. Garry was known for his big smile and telling jokes. He loved music, dancing, fishing and being around his family. He touched so many people even at the VA hospital where he worked for 33 years. Patients would ask for him even though they didn't know his name..... "Where's the guy that's always smiling and telling jokes?"

Garry leaves to cherish his memory, his wife of 48 years Ruby Jean Steward, two sons Garry and Dominick, daughter Shetia (Dante), an abundance of grand and great-grandchildren.

Garry also leaves to cherish his memory his sister, Sarah Stewart; brother, Harry Steward; sisters, Jewel Poole, Charlie Mae Steward and Ethel Steward. A host of niece and nephews cousins and friends

Proceeding him and his death is his mother, John Ella Evans; father, Laden Bell; sisters, Johnny Mae Marsh and Dorothy Brown.

His memory will forever live on and be cherished
