

I'M FREE

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free.
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard him call;
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
to laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way;
I found that place at the close of the day.
If my parting has left a void,
then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss; Ah yes,
these things, I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow;
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much;
Good friends, good times, a loved ones touch.
Perhaps my time seems all too brief;
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me, God wanted me now,
He set me free.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

Perhaps you sent a lovely card, or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral spray, if so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words, as any friend would say.
Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you so much,
whatever the part.

Obituary

Freddie Cook was born May 16, 1949 to the late Mae Francise Cook in New Site, Alabama. At the age 14 he relocated to Cleveland, Ohio.

Freddie lived a challenging life mixed wordly passions, bad decisions and poor choices. However, inspite to himself, to God's Glory he was able to eventually overcome those challenges and become respected by many. Freddie began to attend church faithfully with christian friends.

In God's infinite wisdom, He saw fit for Freddie to breathe his last breath December 12, 2021 before the world could completely consume him once again.

Freddie was best known for being a sharp well dressed man, his fun loving personality and his love for his family.

Freddie leaves to cherrish his memory one (1) son Abdul Malik Rasheed, three (3) granddughters, three (3) grandsons, one (1) great granddughter, one (1) great grandson, one (1) sister Mary Ellen Burns and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Freddie was pre-deceased by one (1) sister Dora Jean Cook and his beloved mother Mae Francise
