

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now, I'm free;
I'm following the path God has chosen for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call;
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work, or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way;
I've now found peace at the end of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joys.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss:
Oh yes, these things I, too, will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow;
Look for the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full; I've savored much:
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seems all too brief;
Don't lengthen your pain with undue grief.
Lift up your heart, and peace to thee.
God wanted me now—He has set me free.*

Obituary

Lisa Harrison was born on June 9, 1958, in Cleveland, Ohio, to Sandra Cole. She was the oldest of three children.

Lisa was the mother of two children, Stephanie and Vernon.

Lisa graduated from Glenville High School in 1976. She attended Cuyahoga Community College for Early Childhood Education. She was employed at Catholic Charities Head Start since 1995 and worked until her health would no longer permit her.

Lisa joined Greater Mount Tabor Missionary Baptist Church in 2005 under the leadership of Pastor Eric E. Haskin. She worked in the kitchen and sang in the choir.

Lisa had a passion for kids, making sure they succeed. She believed in helping everyone who needed it with whatever she had. If she didn't have it, she looked elsewhere to get you the help you needed. Lisa always said God would want me to give my gifts, so that's what I do. She stood by her children's side no matter what, being determined to be there for them even if they were right or wrong. Lisa did all she could to give them the best of everything, even if she had to sacrifice. She was known to give the best advice she could to help her family, even if they didn't want to hear it.

Lisa loved all five of her grandchildren. She was so proud of them and always talked very highly of them. Lisa was grateful to see her fifth grandchild born.

Lisa was the strong one of the family and was always trying to keep the peace. She never wanted the family to be in disagreement. She was very big on family because her family was so small.

Lisa Harrison departed this life on January 14, 2022. She was preceded in death by her grandfather; mother, Sandra Cole; and her brother, David Smith.

Lisa leaves to cherish her memory: daughter, Stephanie Barnes; son, Vernon Davis; brother, Mark Smith; and five wonderful grandchildren, Jaylen Barnes, Kierra Davis, Sa'Niyah Barnes, Ki'Asia Davis, and Iyanna Barnes.
