A Fallen Limb

A limb has fallen from the family tree.

I keep hearing a voice that says,

"Grieve not for me."

Remember the best times, the laughter, the song.

The good life I lived while I was strong.

Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you.

Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through.

My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest.

Remembering all, how I truly was blessed.

Continue traditions, no matter how small.

Go on with your life, don't worry about falls.

I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin.

Until the day comes, we're together again.

U.S. Navy Hymn

Eternal Father, strong to save, Whose arm hath bound the restless wave, Who bidd'st the mighty ocean deep Its own appointed limits keep; Oh, hear us when we cry to Thee, For those in peril on the sea! O Trinity of love and power! Our brethren shield in danger's hour; From rock and tempest, fire and foe, Protect them wheresoe'er they go; Thus evermore shall rise to Thee Glad hymns of praise from land and sea.

Memories

Blessed

God's Garden

God looked around His garden,
And found an empty space.
He then looked down upon the Earth,
And saw your precious face. He put His arms around you, And lifted you to rest; God's Garden must be beautiful, He always takes the best. He knew that you were suffering, He knew you were in pain; He knew you would never Get well on Earth again.
He saw the road was getting rough And the hills were hard to climb So, He closed your weary eyelids,
and whispered,
"Peace be thine." It broke our hearts to lose you,
But you did not go alone,
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.
Love Your Sister Jeanette -(little one)
